	intended learning outcomes:  The summary writing assesses how students select and evaluate various academic sources to summarise and critique them, which necessitates achievement of ILO (a).  The multimodal field visit report evaluates students' ability to apply multimodal communication strategies (e.g. spoken, written, visual and aural) to present information, field observation and critical views of their visit, using accurate and appropriate vocabulary and structures (ref. ILO (b)).  The oral presentation assesses students' ability to speak accurately, appropriately and confidently. Students will work in group to research a topic, organise information from various sources creatively and logically, and deliver their ideas in a context of workplace; the Q&A encourages reflection on the process, leading to improved communication and engage	ment (ref. IL	O (c)).
